SCHEDULING MEETING FOR FALL PRESENTATIONS:

THURSDAY, AUGUST 31 AT 10:00 A.M.

We will be having our meeting to schedule presentations for the upcoming fall semester at the JASH office.

Japan-In-A-Suitcase

A free program offered to elementary schools in Hawaii. It is just one of JASH's educational programs aligned with Hawaii DOE Content Standards for Social Studies and World Languages.

One of the goals of JIAS is to nurture students' inquiry and thinking skills. Teaching them to become global citizens open to other cultures and the concept of different perspectives through hands on/interactive activities.

JIAS

Students are introduced to different perspectives

JIAS

Students are identifying different locations on maps and dressing in yukata

JIAS

Students are able to explain to their classmates different items found in a Japanese classroom

JIAS I

Students see different perspectives in a picture.

JIAS II

Students are able to win a "tsuru" playing "Jan Ken Po"

JIAS III

Students explain to their classmates the location of Japan
